

Possible Views from the Southwest

Elevation options were explored for the renovation of South Park School. The elevations depicted assume that the building will be both added onto and renovated. The design possibilities for additions and renovations, however, are not limited to the images contained in the elevation studies shown in this document.

Possible Views from the Southwest

