Synopsis

September 3: The Tender Bar- In 1972, 9-year-old J.R. Maguire moves into his grandfather's dilapidated house in Long Island, N.Y. Searching for a father figure, he falls under the unconventional tutelage of his uncle Charlie, a charismatic, self-educated bartender who introduces him to a handful of the bar's colorful regulars. As the years pass and J.R. grows into a young man, he tries to fulfill his dream of becoming a writer.

September 10: Beautiful Boy- Teenager Nicolas Sheff seems to have it all with good grades and being an actor, artist, athlete and editor of the school newspaper. When Nic's addiction to meth threatens to destroy him, his father does whatever he can to save his son and family.

September 17: Heads of State- U.S. President Will Derringer and British Prime Minister Sam Clarke have a not-so-friendly and very public rivalry. However, when Air Force One gets shot down over enemy territory, they find themselves on the run and working together to thwart a global conspiracy that threatens the entire free world.

September 24: People We Hate at the Wedding- Dysfunctional American siblings Alice (Kristen Bell) and Paul (Ben Platt) know they're not living their best lives. So, when they're invited to the perfect wedding of their wealthy, British and estranged half-sister Eloise.
