The World Revealed

Randall Bennet

Randall works as both fine and commercial artist. Originally from Kansas, He and his wife, Helen, spent many years moving around the USA, gaining experience in a wide range of activities and employment while continuing to create art. Mr. Bennett earned his Bachelor of Architecture Degree from Kansas State University in 1982. He worked in the architectural profession for a number of years before returning to art school at the Center for Creative Studies in Detroit. After several years of intense study in industrial design, illustration, and sculpture, Randall. took a job working in the museum exhibit fabrication industry. The artist has been involved with about 75 museums and Interpretive Centers, that contain something of his artwork, such as dioramas, murals, sculpture, photography, graphic art, etc. Mr. Bennett is currently a signature member of Artists for Conservation, a signature member of Southern Watercolor Society, an Associate member of Society of Animal Artists, a member of Pastel Society of America, a member of the International Guild of Realism

Steven Greenwall

Born and raised in Salt Lake City, Utah, Steven R. Greenwall has expanded artistically far beyond his mountain roots and now calls the Kansas plains his home.

He received a Bachelor of Arts in Art Education from Brigham Young University and his culminating degree, a Master of Fine Arts in drawing and painting from Utah State University.

He retired from Allen County Community College in Iola, Kansas where he taught art for 24 years. He continues to draw and paint, teach art classes, workshops, judge shows and display his artwork internationally. He currently resides in Iola, Kansas.

His work has been featured in group and one-man exhibits across the United States and Japan and can be found in public and private collections world-wide. He has been the recipient of numerous honors and awards.

Pastel, watercolor and various drawing mediums dominate his work. His intimate landscapes and portraits suggest a feeling of solitude and tranquility. The light in his work often serves to represent a divine presence.

He hopes that you will derive pleasure from his work and that you will come away with a heightened appreciation for the simple sensitive beauty found in his representation of intimate spaces of nature, still life and the human form.

Robert Klausing

Robert Klausing is an artist from Butler, Missouri. He is retired from 27 years of teaching and coaching in the Lee’s Summit R-7 school district and has served as an adjunct art instructor at Longview Community College in Lee’s Summit, Missouri. Mr. Klausing received a Bachelor of Fine Arts and Bachelor of Arts in Education degree from the University of Nebraska-Kearney and a Master of Arts in Painting from the University of Central Missouri. Mr. Klausing works in a variety of media including Acrylic, Pastel, Watercolor, and Oil. The bulk of Mr. Klausing’s current artwork focuses on the land and environment where he lives near beautiful Spruce, Missouri. He also enjoys creating artwork that focuses on his family. Mr. Klausing’s work has garnered top awards in art exhibits throughout the Midwest. He is a two-time participant in Watercolor USA and his artwork is part of permanent collections of several galleries and museums. He considers the French and American Impressionists, John Singer Sargent and Neil Welliver as primary influences on his work.
